GIRL DISAPPEARS FROM HER HOME

F. A. Schultz Asks Police to Find Daughter, Who Has Been Missing Since Tuesday.

Elizabeth Schultz, eighteen years old, daughter of F. A. Schultz, who lives on the Creighton Road, Henrico County, is noted the object of a search by the police. Her father yesterday reported to Captain of Detectives McMahon that she left home Tuesday night. She was last seen as she boarded an Oakwood and Broad Street car at Twenty-fifth and Q Streets, having come to Richmond on the Seven Pines Line.

"Her disappearance is a puzzle," said Mr. Schultz last night, referring to his daughter's absence. "I believe she is in Richmond with some woman who has persuaded her to leave home. I have reason to believe she has some money, but I cannot be certain about this. She is a girl who easily makes friends and is easily led astray."

When last seen the girl had a big wooden cracker box, which was said to have been filled with clothing. This attracted the attention of the conductor of the car on which she came to the city and he saw her board the Oakwood car.

She is described as being five feet tall; weight, 110 pounds; light complexion, light hair, blue eyes. When last seen she wore a white dress, white shoes and big white hat, with a blue ribbon on it.

COMMENTS JANITORS

Federal Building Inspector Finds Post-Office Next as Pin.

Unstinted praise upon the excellent appearance of the interior of the new post-office building was the reward handed out yesterday to the building force of janitors by Arthur C. Powie, government inspector of public buildings. According to the inspector, the post-office is kept in almost model condition. Its neat appearance places it on a par, he said, with the Baltimore custom house, which is regarded as the standard of public buildings in the United States. Mr. Powie called the janitors together and presented his congratulations in a little speech.

Surfage League in Danville.

The formation of a new Equal Surfage League in Danville is the result of an address made there by Mrs. B. B. Venable on Monday before the Danville Workers' Union, during the convention of the National League of Labor. The league started off with a list of members, and there was a large attendance. President, Mrs. W. T. Harris, vice-president, Mrs. J. E. Hicks, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas Meade.

DECIDES TO DIE, AND WRITES WIFE

Holt Tells Her to Have City Dock Dragged for Him. Found in Saloon.

R. S. Holt, about forty years old, a mechanic, of 129 Wood Street, Chelsea Hill, decided yesterday to shuffle off this mortal coil and wrote a note to that effect to his wife. It was delivered by an unidentified boy. When Mrs. Holt read it she became hysterical, and her shrieks brought many neighbors to her assistance. Frank U. Holt, of 114 Wood Street, was one of the first to arrive. He took the note, and it read as follows:

"My dear wife, I am the meanest man in the world and I can't pay what I owe in this world. I am in debt over $100 and can't pay, so you will never see me alive. May God bless you. Get the city to drag the Dock at Eighteenth and Dock Streets. You can't have any self-respect for me. Tell Lennie and Marie and your pop good-bye, and a long life for yourself. I hope God will bless you. I know He will not me."

(Signed) "B. S. Holt"

The following note was addressed to "Paymaster, American Locomotive Works," where Holt is employed as a foreman:

"Please pay all my time to bearer and oblige B. S. Holt."

Milburn hurried to police headquarters and showed the two notes to Captain of Detectives McMahon. He was advised to have the dock dragged. While preparations were being made for this Holt was found in a saloon by friends.

He was taken home and reached there last night at 9 o'clock.

"Where have you been?" Holt was asked.

"I don't know where I've been," was his reply as he walked into the back door of his home.

REGRET JENNINGS'S DEFEAT

Lynchburg Sends New Member to House of Delegates. General regret was expressed at the Capitol yesterday at the announcement from Lynchburg of the defeat for reelection of Tipton D. Jennings, for many years a member of the House of Delegates from Lynchburg. Mr. Jennings was one of the oldest and most popular members of the House. He had occupied for some years the seat of the late Speaker, John D. Eastley, who was elected to the House in 1908. Mr. Jennings was a member of the House from Lynchburg. He is a practicing attorney of that city.

HEALTH BULLETINS

State Board Issues Warning Against

Special bulletins are being issued on the various summer diseases have been prepared for distribution by the State Board of Health. Typhoid fever is the most serious summer scourge and has sections of the State, being due almost entirely to unsanitary premises which add to the danger of the disease. In addition to bad water or bad milk. In a new general bulletin on good health suggestions for protecting the water supply, especially of farm houses. A bedside suggestions for the treatment of typhoid fever cases. New bulletins on malaria, and on the care of infants are also ready for distribution and will be furnished free upon request.

JAPANESE NAVY SENDS MEN HERE

Three Naval Instructors Inspect Big Shipyards at Newport News.

STOP OVER IN RICHMOND

Taguchi Believes Trouble Over California Alien Law Will Be Adjusted.

T. Miyaji, S. Kabayashi and S. Taguchi, naval instructors in the employ of the Japanese royal navy, registered at Stump's Hotel last night for a short sightseeing stay in the city. They came from Washington and will return to the national capital to-day. The men are on their way back to Japan after eighteen months of service in an English shipyard engaged in constructing for the Mikado, a modern armored cruiser.

Mr. Taguchi, spokesman for the trio, was entirely willing to discuss anything that might be of interest to the big shipyards at Newport News, and found them equal to any they had seen in England. Washington was wonderful. They expected to visit Cramp's in Philadelphia and then cut across the country to Chicago, St. Louis and other Western points. Then to San Francisco and back to Yokohama.

I am sure that Japan and the United States will settle all differences arising from the California difficulty, without trouble," said Mr. Taguchi. "That is my opinion as well as the opinion of most of the Japanese with whom I have talked about the matter."

Mr. Taguchi spoke excellent English, despite the fact that most of it was acquired in the high schools of Japan. English, he said, was rapidly coming to the front as the official language of commerce in the Far East, and is a compulsory study in the higher schools of his country. Other languages like German and French, he said, are elective.

ARREST THREE NEGROES

Alleged Clothing Thieves Are Rounded Up by Detectives.

Three negroes were arrested yesterday by Detectives Frank and W. C. Kellam and Kregel and Bicycle Policemen Bertucci on the charge of stealing clothing from J. Wolf, a tailor, who has a store at Seventeenth and Broad Streets. They are Clarence, William Burke, all old offenders. The latter is also accused of stealing a coat from a woman on the street.

Wiley and Kellam located Johnson yesterday morning in Brown Street, but the latter saw the detectives some distance away and ran and for the time being escaped. Yesterday afternoon he tried to run from Bertucci when he was found in an alley near Twenty-first Street. Bertucci fired once at the negro, and he decided to submit to arrest. He was not wounded.

Kregel said he expected the trio would be convicted on several charges of petit larceny.

BARBERS ORGANIZE

Form Richmond Association for General Betterment of Trade.

The Master Barbers' Association of Richmond was organized Thursday night at a meeting, when more than twenty members were enrolled. The object of the association is for the betterment of sanitary conditions in shops and the general improvement of the trade in this city. The following officers were elected: George C. Emig, president; R. Pokrass, vice-president; L. A. Gasser, secretary; Johnson, treasurer.

A. C. Medell, organizer of the Journeymen Barbers' International Union of America, is now in the city, and will form a local branch at a meeting to be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Labor Temple.

BOLLING FOUND GUILTY

Gets Three Years for Stealing Brass From Railroad.

In the Henrico County court yesterday Judge Richardson sentenced Alfred Bolling to serve three years in the State Penitentiary for stealing locomotive and engine brass valued at $150 from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. Bolling, a colored man, pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing a horse valued at $125 from J. T. Hood, and was given four years on the roads. The case in which he was charged with stealing another horse from C. F. Amridge was not pressed.

William Gordon, a white, who was charged with stealing seven shirts, valued at $3.50, from the Economy Dry Goods Company. The case had been appealed from the Police Court, where Justice Crutchfield had imposed a four months' sentence.

Miss Frank's Recital. An enjoyable recital was given by Miss Joe Ford Frank, a soloist from New York, last night in the Seventh Street Christian Church. In a wonderful concert she played "O, My Heart Is Weary," following which she was given many encores.

FERRANDINI ASKS FOR INJUNCTION

Wants Court to Prevent Committee From Placing Annexation Issue on Ballot.

WOULD VIOLATE BYRD LAW

Inclusion of Referendum, He Claims, Would Render Primary Election Illegal.

With a bill of complaint denouncing as illegal and in violation of the statutes of Virginia, the City Democratic Committee's proposal to place on the primary election ballots next week the words "for or against reference of annexation ordinance," Frank Ferrandini, a member of the same committee, appeared before Judge Beverley T. Crump, of the Law and Equity Court, yesterday and asked for an injunction to restrain Walter G. Duke and the other thirty-eight members of the committee from putting the plan into effect.

Judge Crump listened to two hours of argument presented ably by opposing lawyers, and at 2:35 o'clock declared the annexation ordinance to be illegal and ordered a writ of injunction to restrain the committee from putting the plan into effect.

Supporting Mr. Ferrandini appeared Attorneys Charles V. Meredith, Edgar B. English and Kirk Matthews. Attorney Charles V. Meredith, who is also a member of the City Democratic Committee, presented argument against the granting of the injunction.

Cumulative Interesting Fight. The fight brought to a climax a difference between members of the City Democratic Committee's subcommittee on plans, which has gained momentum steadily since it first came to the public notice. On that day the plans committee submitted to the main body a majority and minority report, the former favoring and the latter opposing the plan for submitting to the electorate a referendum on the annexation question.

Both reports were laid on the table and a substitute resolution adopted by the committee. It is believed that the words "for or against reference of annexation ordinance," with the idea of letting the voters decide whether or not they would authorize the City Council to submit the annexation ordinance to a plebiscite. The substitute resolution was from the beginning opposed by Mr. Ferrandini, who held that the City Democratic Committee had no right to place on the primary ballots anything but the names of candidates. The committee, he insisted, can authorize a primary election only under the terms and requirements of the Byrd act of 1912.

Quotes Byrd Law. In support of this view, Mr. Ferrandini, in his petition to the court yesterday, submitted section 18 of the Byrd act of 1912.

"The primary ballots for the several parties taking part in a primary shall be printed and delivered to the judges presiding by the city or county committee of the judges, in duplicate, and shall be composed, arranged, printed and provided in the same manner as the official election ballots, except as herein provided."

Across the head of each official primary ballot shall be printed in plain, black type first, the name of the political party, the names of whose candidates are printed thereon, and immediately underneath the following words: "Primary Election Ballot."

The official election ballots mentioned in the foregoing section of the Byrd law, Mr. Ferrandini holds, in his bill of complaint, is described in Section 127 of the Code of Virginia, 1901, which provides, among other things, that "only the names of the candidates to be voted for shall be placed on the ballot."

On the grounds just enumerated, the plaintiff asked for a restraining order against Secretary Walter G. Duke and other members of the City Democratic Committee, to prevent them from putting into practice the committee's resolution which, he held, would make the coming primary election illegal and void.

The Byrd law and its elasticity. Mr. Ferrandini held that the Byrd law stated specifically the conditions under which a legalized primary could be held, and that a departure from the provisions was enough to render an election without force.

Chairman Miles M. Martin, of the City Democratic Committee, held that the committee was acting within its powers in placing the disputed words on the ballot. In securing an expression from the voters on the submission of the annexation ordinance, he held, the committee was acting for the best interests of the party. A strict compliance with the language restricting the printing on the ballots to the names of candidates only, he thought, would prohibit the inclusion of the words "vote for or against" and other phrases of similar nature. He stated a ruling of the late Judge Ingram, in 1908, which appeared to support his position. Attorney Florence held the same general views.

Defendants File Answer. On behalf of Secretary Walter G. Duke and the other members of the City Democratic Committee named as defendants in the bill of complaint, Attorneys Martin and Florence filed the following answer:

"These defendants deny to the bill of complaint because the same is insufficient in law, and for grounds of demurrer assign the following: "1.—The complainant's bill does not show that he is injured or deprived of any right by the action of the defendants complained of; "2.—Neither the ballot nor the primary is in any way invalidated or made void by the act of the defendants complained of; "3.—That the remedy, if any he has, would be an appeal to the State Central Democratic Committee; "4.—The complainant fails to show that the action of the defendants is contrary to or subversive of any regulation or rule made by the proper authorities of the 'Democratic party.'"

Lee Ward Meeting To-Night. Candidates for the House of Delegates and for city offices to be nominated in the primary next Thursday will speak before the Lee Ward Democratic Club at 8 o'clock to-night. This will be the only opportunity of the campaign to speak to the voters of Lee Ward, and a large attendance is anticipated.

HOLDS UP WATER FOR FULTON HILL

War Department Refuses Permission to Lay Mains Along Government Road.

Tentative plans for extending a twelve-inch water main from the east end of Broad Street easterly to supply citizens residing on Fulton Hill with city water have received a temporary setback at the hands of the national government. In order to reach Fulton Hill by the shortest route, it is necessary to run the main for some distance along the Government Road in Henrico County, and the War Department has declined to give its permission to the plan.

Superintendent E. E. Davis, of the City Water Works, under whose supervision the plans have been carried forward, notified the Administrative Board yesterday that he has received a communication from the War Department declining to permit the laying of mains along the Government Road. The latter from the government, however, indicates that permission would be granted to lay the mains on the outside of the road. Mr. Davis told the board that he could not recommend the latter plan.

The board delegated Mr. Beck and Mr. Davis a committee to go to Washington to take the matter up with the proper authorities. It is believed that with the matter once properly laid before the War Department permission to lay the mains as first intended will be forthcoming.

A letter was read from Judge Ernest H. Wells, of Hastings Court, Part II, requesting the sum of $1250 to index books, etc., in the several clerks' offices in accordance with the acts of the General Assembly. The clerk was instructed to inform Judge Wells that no provision was made for this item in the 1913 budget, and that it will be necessary to apply for the money to the Council.

MAN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF HITTING HER WITH ROCK

William Farley, thirty-three years old, was arrested yesterday, charged with hitting Mattie Taylor, a Molly Street, with a rock. He struck her in the chest. She was rendered unconscious. He was taken to the City Hospital ambulance surgeon, who said that no bones had been broken, but that she had sustained internal injuries, which cannot be determined for several days.

Burchette Denies That He Insulted Girl Clerk in Store.

D. H. Burchette, twenty-six years old, was placed under arrest and placed under $200 bond for his good behavior for twelve months yesterday morning on the charge of making improper remarks to Miss Eura Fischer, sixteen years old, a clerk employed in McCrory's 5 and 10-Cent Store. He noted an appeal to the Hustings Court. Burchette denied the charge which could be construed as even impolite.

Burchette was arrested with W. R. Peyton on the night of May 24 on complaint of S. H. Walthall, acting manager of the store, who declared he had seen Burchette make improper remarks to the girl. Peyton was charged with the same offense, but it was shown he had nothing to do with it, and he was dismissed by Justice Crutchfield.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT

Woman Who Tried to "Kidnap" Step-child Punished in Court. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed upon Mrs. Mary Cantor, of 311 North Nineteenth Street, yesterday, for contempt. Last Monday Mrs. Cantor tried to "kidnap" her thirteen-year-old stepdaughter, who was being taken to the Byrd Street Station by Mrs. Sarah Rollins, a probation officer, to be sent to the fresh-air camp at Bon Air. The child had been taken from Mrs. Cantor because it was stated she had been ill treated. Mrs. Cantor paid the fine.

Williams and Rhea on Way to Atlanta in Custody of Deputy Marshal. Luther W. Williams and John M. Rhea, the two Broad Rock distillers, whose last fight for freedom was lost before Judge Vaddill in the United States District Court on Thursday afternoon, left Richmond on the 1 o'clock Seaboard Air Line train yesterday afternoon for Atlanta, to begin service of their terms in the Federal penitentiary. The men were in the custody of United States Deputy Marshal J. E. West, who will turn them over to the warden of the penitentiary to-day.

In spite of the fact that both were leaving wife and children for months, Williams and Rhea each held up well under a trying ordeal. Their first night in prison was spent in the Henrico County Jail, and their last farewells were spoken there yesterday morning, when the members of their families visited them.

The long fight which the two men have waged for freedom has been costly. Williams appeared nervous and agitated, as though he had slept but little, but Rhea gave no indication of mental anguish.

It is estimated that the Southern Railway for the fourth week in May show an increase of earnings compared with the corresponding week last year.

You Hear

People ask every day, "Do you believe in Fate?"—"Do you believe in Luck?" Some people enjoy thinking that it is some other power holding them back from success rather than lack of industry and concentration on their own part. We believe that there is more luck in ten hours a day hustling than in all the rabbits' feet in the State of Virginia.
